GOVERNOR BECKHAM is making a noise like a gum shoe.

THE CZAR of all the Russias is perfectly willing to have peace if only he has the making of the peace terms.

IF the Russian Douma wishes to get a square deal it should hold its sessions near the Hague Peace Parliament. These two representative farces should be close together.

THE Japs, by their smartness and enterprise, are paying the price for civilization, and are trying to borrow 5,000,000,000 francs in the French money market. It costs money to be a world-power.

HERE is a small boy's essay on woman: "Woman is what man likes to marry. Man is logical; woman is zoological. Both man and woman sprang from monkeys, but woman sprang the farthest."

COL. HORACE GREELEY RISING, for seven years Rural Route Inspector, who has personally driven over every one of the 670 routes in Kentucky, has started a newspaper in the interest of good roads called "Rising's Rural Review."

SENATOR FORAKER not only was the friend and chief spokesman for the Negro troopers who shot up Brownsville, but he now wants to be Judge and Jury, too. It is to be hoped that he will get all he wants of it before the incident closes.

DURING a recent hail storm in Georgia the hail stones were so large that they killed chickens and went clear through watermelons. This is a terrible blow to the Rufuses and the Rastuses of the Sunny South. With no watermelons and few circuses, all the darkey gets will be a lemon.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT generally knows his business, and again and again has his seemingly impulsive action been sustained by the facts and the evidence. He was condemned for his hasty action in the Brownsville case and in the Haywood and Moyer case at Boise City. Now the Committee investigating the Brownsville scrape has suspended its work until November 18th, and after the election. It is said that the report fully upholds and sustains the President for his dismissal from the Army of the murderous troopers, the vote of the Committee standing 9 to 4.

THE President's condemnation of MOYER and HAYWOOD has not only been justified, but such a state of anarchy, arson and murder has been unveiled and shown to exist among the federation of miners, without a parallel in the labor troubles.

ROOSEVELT simply stands for the truth, the law and order and decency, and those opposing him, of course, are aiding and abetting the criminals whom he seeks to expose and convict.

THERE can be only one side to such questions, but because of the President's startling initiative, the hit grafter and thief howls, while the President's enemies cry "imperialism," "man on horseback," etc.

IT is a lucky thing for American liberty that such a man as THEODORE ROOSEVELT occupies the White House at this progressive time and in this age of loot, graft and murder.

THE BRIDE'S CHECKBOOK

When Jones and his wife returned from their honeymoon and settled down to housekeeping, Jones deposited $500 to his wife's credit in the bank and presented her with a checkbook. Mrs. Jones was delighted.

"Oh, isn't that lovely," she cried. "I think this is the dearest little checkbook. It folds up so nicely and has such a pretty leather cover. And isn't this a dear little book with my name on it."

Jones took the book and described carefully the making of a check. "Suppose you go to Smith & Co. and buy $2 worth of groceries. You take your checkbook, write the date up here, Smith & Co. in here, down here you write the amount, 'Two dollars and no cents,' and over here you write it in figures, '2.00,' and then sign your name. That makes it just as good as money."

"I think that's just lovely," cooed Mrs. Jones.

The next day she started out early on a shopping tour. She paid for everything that day in checks except 20 cents worth of fruit, for which the Italian fruiterer positively refused to accept anything but cash, much to Mrs. Jones' astonishment. When the little woman reached home she was radiant.

"I think it's just grand to pay with checks," she told her husband.

One morning a few days later Jones received a telephone call at his office. It was his wife.

"Oh, John, I'm in such trouble. Come down at once. I'm here at my bank."

The receiver was hung up and Jones, half wild with alarm, grabbed his coat and rushed down the hall into the elevator and out of the building. When he reached the bank he found his wife sitting timidly in a corner of the ladies' department.

"What is the matter? Are you ill?" he asked anxiously, hurrying to her.

"No, John, I'm not ill; but I'm absolutely penniless. You see, I came down this morning with only a nickel in my purse. I took a car, and when the conductor came round I wrote him out a check for my fare. He refused to take it, and—Oh, John—he laughed at me. So I had to give him the nickel. And you see that left me without any money at all! But I came on, and when I got to the bank I stopped here because I sort of feel safe here. Oh, John, I felt so relieved when I heard your voice, I could have hugged you!"

Had the Meanness to Laugh at Me.

"But, my dear," he asked, "how can you be without money when you are right here at the bank?"

"Yes, I'm here," agreed Mrs. Jones, "and I have quite a lot of money in there, but how am I going to get it out?"

"But you could get money," said Jones.

"Yes, dear; that's the reason I called you up," she replied innocently.

"But why didn't you draw some out of the bank?"

"Would they let me do that?" she asked, with puzzled brow.

Jones quietly led her to a desk.

"Now, just make out a check, like you would to Smith & Co., only you put your own name in place of that of Smith & Co.," he said.

"But, John, you told me always to put the name of the person from whom I bought things in that blank," she pouted.

"The rule still applies," her husband reassured her. "You are buying $5 from yourself now."

A smile broke over the puzzled feminine face.

"And will they give me $5 just for this?" she asked wonderingly.

"Try it," he said.

When she came from the window with the money she was radiant.

"Oh, John, I think it's twice as much fun to have a checkbook now!" she said. And John grinned.

Marrying Under the Gallows.

In older days, if a man or woman would consent to marry under the gallows, a person condemned to death might thereby be saved from execution. This happened, according to an old English ballad, to a Chichester merchant who was thus saved by a loving maiden. In 1784 a criminal at New York escaped in the same way. (And all readers of Victor Hugo's "Notre Dame" will remember that powerful and dramatic scene where Esmeralda saves Pierre Gringoire.) But Pinkerton records a case where the criminal refused to retain life in this way. The story of this intrepid refusal has been told in titles which bear quotation.

WILLSON'S STAR

Rises Today—A United Party Cheers the Hearts of Kentucky Republicans

Louisville Convention Dominated By Harmony—Willson and Cox the Standard Bearers

Hon. WILLIAM H. COX.
Nominee for Lieutenant-Governor of Kentucky.

Today at Louisville the big convention of Kentucky Republicans will nominate by acclamation a candidate for Governor, Lieutenant Governor and the rest of the state ticket, and enunciate principles and adopt a platform that will mark a new era in the Commonwealth.

THE TICKET.

Governor—Augustus E. Willson, Louisville.

Lieutenant Governor—William H. Cox, Maysville.

Treasurer—Captain Ed. Farley, Paducah.

Auditor—Frank P. James, Harrodsburg.

Secretary of State—Dr. Ben L. Bruner, Louisville.

Attorney General—George W. Jolly, Owensboro.

Commissioner of Agriculture—N. Adams, Laurel county.

Superintendent of Public Instruction—Prof. J. G. Crabbe, Ashland.

W. Marshall Bullitt of Louisville will be Temporary Chairman and former Governor W. O. Bradley will be Permanent Chairman of the convention. Bradley will also nominate Willson.

A dispatch from Louisville says:

Not only will Augustus E. Willson be the unanimous choice of the Kentucky Republicans for Governor, but the convention which will nominate him will be a Willson convention.

The nominee-to-be will practically dictate the entire ticket, and the platform will be as he desires it. Not that there is any dictation or any one-man convention. Just the opposite to that.

For the first time in years, the Republicans of Kentucky are united and harmonious. They realize that this is their one chance to win and restore the old Commonwealth to a state of freedom and fair counts. Affairs shaped themselves so that Willson was the logical candidate and in recognizing that fact the party leaders wisely left it all to him. Mr. Willson demonstrates his fitness for leadership by being magnanimous to those who were not with him at the start, and when the time for distributing honors of the Convention is at hand he will be found offering the chief honors to his "late opponents."

WILLIAM O. BRADLEY
Former Governor, who will take a prominent part in the Republican Convention at Louisville today.

It is going to be a love-feast all around, and if there are any contests for place on the state ticket they will be of the friendliest sort. When the work is finished there will be lined up a solid party, ready to give battle to the so-called Democracy of this state, a Democracy that long ago lost its best element because of the corrupt gang methods that began with the Gobel ring and was carried out by the Beckham non-descripts. It will be a fighting Republican party this time.

Nothing distant about Willson or his methods. Rather the people will see another campaign such as obtained in the two races made by W. O. Bradley, who is still the idol of the party. As a matter of fact, it is Bradley and his followers who are behind Willson. Republicans have always believed Bradley was elected in his first campaign, and they made it certain the next time. This year there will be a Bradley campaign, and if there is anything like a fair count, Willson will be Governor next year.

EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTE

At M. E. Church—Able Addresses and Splendid Meetings

The Institute at the Third Street Methodist Church was of unusual interest yesterday. In the absence of some of the announced speakers the subject of the "Ministry,"—the Call and the Qualifications—was ably discussed by Dr. Morris and Dr. Hanford, and a general discussion entered into by many present.

At 2:30 the same subject was again taken up for discussion, in which many suggestive thoughts were given out by those who had time to speak.

At 3:30 Dr. Morris came before the Institute with his lecture, "Development of Soul Power in Oratory," in which some of the most helpful suggestions were given to the Ministers, leading them to a more thorough preparation for and effectiveness in the work of the Church and the Kingdom. Dr. Morris said that the development of the science of logic was not of the greatest importance; that logic was but a straight line leading from one truth or thought to another; that the power of beautiful phrasing nor the art of perfect rhetoric were of paramount consideration; but getting on the "heart side" of things was the first great move toward the development of soul power. He said that God did not present to the world a great university with a President and a hundred Professors, but that the Universe was God's school for men and everything in it was a teacher. Getting in touch with nature and with nature's God would put one in touch with the heart of men. To be at one's best in the Ministry the preacher must study the great things and the infinitesimal; he must live close to nature and commune with her sounds and her silences and study art and all the products of the world's geniuses. In all, this was a remarkable address.

At 8 o'clock Dr. Wean of Ashland, preached a soul-inspiring sermon on the "Baptism of the Holy Ghost." The burden of his message was that in addition to all the other qualifications, natural and attained, the anointing of the Holy Spirit is the crowning work that qualifies for the work of the Ministry. His sermon was attentively heard by a large audience.

The congregational singing was inspiring. Mr. Muse and Rev. Bunton sang a duet.

This afternoon at 2:30, Dr. Oliver will be heard on "Palpit Manners."

At 3:30 Dr. Morris will deliver a lecture on "The Art of Getting an Audience."

At 7:30 Dr. Oliver will preach.

Mr. Muse will sing at the evening service. The general public is invited to all these services both day and night.

During the day many more Ministers arrived from different parts of the state.

Kentucky Socialists, in convention at the Ludlow Lagoon Sunday, nominated a full state ticket, naming for Railroad Commissioner in the Third District H. B. Ashbury of Augusta.

"FIRE DRILL"

Scares Woman Into Convulsions—Worse Than the Fool Who Rocks the Boat

The "fool who rocks the boat" is not a whit worse, if as bad, as the officers of the steamer who suddenly sounded the false alarm for a fire drill on a big Cincinnati excursion steamer.

Sunday's Enquirer says—
"Mrs. William Dreihaus, the woman who was thrown into convulsions on the Island Queen Saturday evening when the crew began a fire drill, is still in a serious condition at her home 336 Fairfield avenue.

"She was accompanied by three young children ranging in ages from 1 to 6 years, and her anxiety for the safety of her charges wrought upon her nervous system, finally throwing her into convulsions. Dr. Gould, her attending physician, stated yesterday that since the initial attack she has had one spell after another, and all attempts to relieve her have proved unavailing."

It must have been a harrowing experience to the women and children on board, not to mention the men who were full of Cincinnati beer.

According to a financial report made to the Capital Commission at Frankfort, $700,000 has been expended to date on the new building and it is rapidly nearing completion, just one year after the laying of the cornerstone. Only the construction of the immense dome remains to give the building the outward appearance of being completed.

IT PAYS BIG, TOO.

You bet it pays to advertise. As a result of their announcement in THE LEDGER and Bulletin, Hamilton and Russell say they had twenty odd applications from young ladies for positions in the refreshment booth at Beechwood Park.

SPECIAL SERVICE

For Old People Next Sunday Morning at Christian Church

Rev. P. A. Cave will conduct a special service next Sunday morning in the Christian Church for the old people of Maysville.

All those who have a loved one or a friend who is unable to frequent the house of God by reason of age and infirmity are cordially asked to assist him or her to the Church, or bring them in a suitable conveyance. Provision will be made in the Church for their comfort, and the whole service—hymns, sermon and all will be of a character to cheer and bless their hearts and lives.

This service will be something new in Maysville, but it will prove a blessing and a joy forever to all who attend and help the aged ones to come. If there should be any old person who has no one to aid him or her in getting to the service, if you will notify Mr. Cave of your wish to attend he will gladly see that a way is provided for you. All are most kindly invited to attend.

Hundreds of Maysville Readers Know What It Means

The kidneys are overtaxed; Have too much to do. They tell about it in many aches and pains—Backache, sideache, headache, Early symptoms of kidney ills. Urinary troubles, diabetes, Bright's disease follow.

A Maysville citizen tells here a certain cure. Mrs. Lizzie Burns, living on the Blue Run Turnpike, West End, Maysville, Ky., says; "My opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills which I expressed through our newspapers in the spring of 1900 has not altered. I value this preparation more highly today than I did when I gave my first testimonial. Before I got Doan's Kidney Pills I was troubled with severe spells of backache and kidney complaint which came on every few months, and there were times when I was confined to my bed and rendered almost helpless. The quick and decided benefit I received from Doan's Kidney Pills was wonderful. I have noticed slight returns of backache since, but an appeal to Doan's Kidney Pills never failed to quickly and positively check the trouble. In every case I know among my friends when Doan's Kidney Pills have been used the results have always been satisfactory.

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
